"Ain't No Local Control. . .
Without Controls"

Frac sand mining ordinances that work in the St. Croix Valley

April 28, 2013 - 1:00-4:00 p.m.

Four regional experts will present ordinances that work to protect Minnesota and Wisconsin communities from impacts of frac sand mining.
WHY? To protect water and air quality, roads/traffic, noise pollution, valley and bluff land scenery from the potential for industrial scale open pit mining to threaten scenic integrity and quality of life in the St. Croix River Valley.

♦ Pat Popple, Chippewa Falls, WI, Editor of the Frac Sand Sentinel;
♦ David Williams, attorney and MN township supervisor, drafted
Fillmore County MN and Florence Twp Silica Sand ordinances; ♦ Melanie Kleiss Boerger, coordinator for Wisconsin Model
Nonmetallic Mining Ordinance; ♦ Tom Triplett, attorney, former MN Commissioner of Finance and past Chair of the MN Environmental Quality Board will moderate.

Frac Sand Industry Sacrifice Zones Much local control has been compromised by $and Dollars. This is a fact in my unzoned township.

One of only 3 supervisors plans a frac sand washing plant and railroad load-out on his property. He says if we don't like it, he'll have his property anne... See More
