Mags:

Did you consult at all on this?

Larry wants to talk about this tomorrow.

I've learned that Nick Palaia formally from Litchfield WMD might have consulted on this project about five years ago over email, but I'm not sure how we would get to that email since the change in the mail system.

Hi Deanne,
yes, I have been working with those folks on Black Oak/Getty - and Rich Davis worked with them before me.
We have a lot of documents, but I'm not too worried about it right now as there is no formal FOIA request yet.

Thanks,

MAGs
