

Alan Jewell – Resume

Ex.-JJI-Jewell-1

Alan Jewell
3362 County Road B
Dodgeville, WI 53533

(608) 553-1335
aljewell144@gmail.com

1973 to present: active grain farmer, past livestock producer.

1974 UW Platteville graduate in Agricultural Education with an economics focus.

UW Platteville Agricultural, Live Sciences, and Biology, Alumni President.

4-time honoree 'Best Managed Farms in the USA.'
Awarded by the Farm Progress publications.

2nd Runner up, Wisconsin JC's Outstanding Young Farmer.
Wisconsin JC organization.

Harvestland Production Credit Board elected board member, two 3-year terms.
Harvestland was Wisconsin's largest agricultural lender at that time.

Wrote three columns a week for 2 years on the Data Transmission Network 70,000 subscriber terminals across the USA dealing with market quotes, news, and market opinions, 1999 to 2001.

Wrote monthly columns for 10+ years for the Five Star Publishing Inc.
Delivered to 250,000+ active farmers east of the Rocky Mountains.
Dealing with agricultural issues and marketing, From 2000 to 2010.

Wrote various weekly articles in the Country Today Newspaper for 3+ years, dealing with agricultural markets and marketing, from 1998 to 2001.

Specific Pathogenic Free hog organization, State of Wisconsin president.

Wisconsin Fertilizer Research Fund member, DATCP.

Governor Jim Doyle appointed Alan for two terms, mid 2005 to 2010? :

- 1) To gain knowledge on fertilizer efficiency, plant nutrition, and groundwater and surface water protection that can improve agricultural profitability and protect resources.
- 2) To provide information for Wisconsin Farmers that can be used for making wise decisions regarding fertilizer use in Wisconsin.
- 3) Select and provide funding for competing research projects.